

the english garden

OPPOSITE PAGE: Dangling orchids, stripes and colored wire add texture and whimsy to this table. Chivari chairs from www.specialeventsrentals.com.

THIS PAGE: Don't forget to adorn the bar! Long stemmed roses, yellow lilies and tall greens will capture the eye.

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8) | PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

the english garden

Vintage linens, antique china and family mementos bring the past and the present together.

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8) | PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

Purple and lilac are hot colors this season. Brilliant hues of purple can be found in lilies, roses, and orchids. TOP: Fleurutations BOTTOM RIGHT: Fleurutations BOTTOM LEFT: The Purple Poppy

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8) | PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

Hand-tied bouquets have been all the rage for quite some time. Instead of the typical satin ribbon, get creative with needlepoint, a favorite hanky for something borrowed, or accent with greenery. TOP LEFT: The English Garden TOP RIGHT: Casey's Floral and Catering Services BOTTOM: The English Garden

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8)

PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

Bold bouquets with traditional flowers are always a crowd pleaser and are easier on the pocketbook. Think gerber daisies, roses, hydrangea, and throw in some natural berries for spice. TOP LEFT: Casey's Floral and Catering Services TOP RIGHT: A Flower Gathering. BOTTOM: Preston Flowers

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8)

PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

Flower Power

Adding in non-floral accents can create a stunning bouquet. Feathers of all colors and sizes can transport your bouquet from pretty to awe inspiring! LEFT: The Purple Poppy RIGHT: The English Garden

SHOT ON LOCATION: Second Empire (pg 8)

PHOTO: www.garyallenphoto.com

